Meet Dr. Kevin R. McMahon & Dr. Dale G. Gutman

Drs. McMahon & Gutman are part of a 26-year Edgewood tradition of dental comfort & care. They are both graduates of the University of Kentucky College of Dentistry. They have dedicated their professional careers to providing you with the best that dentistry has to offer. They are continually upgrading their practice with the newest techniques & approaches to offer state-of-the-art, comfortable & personalized dental care to you & your family. Drs. McMahon & Gutman have completed courses in cosmetics, implants & orthodontics. They are members of the American Dental Association, the Kentucky Dental Association, the American Academy of Cosmetic Dentistry, the American Orthodontic Society, the Academy of General Dentistry & the Dental Organization for Conscious Sedation (DOCS).

Why Patients Love Edgewood Dental Care. . .

"After years of avoiding the dentist, I have found an amazing dental practice that cares for my feelings while providing excellent dentistry. Drs. McMahon & Gutman & their entire staff treated me like a friend & always made sure I was comfortable & well-informed. I was always encouraged & never made to feel embarrassed for needing extensive work. The doctors consistently provide a pain-free dental experience. I am so grateful to Edgewood Dental Care for providing such great service to me & my entire family."
